Western Week Program Gets Under Way Today

WESTERN WEEK — Discussing plans for the full seven days of Western Week are Anita Haskell Jones, co-chairman, Marge Riley, E. Roy Fitzgerald,

Charlie Harrison and Dottie Higgins, also co-chairman. The Week starts with a bang today and ends next Sunday. Under the two women chairmen, the event takes on a much larger scope this Fall.

City All Set For Western Week Events

Western Week, with all its traditional fun and entertainment, glamor and excitement, will open today, Monday, with a Children's Western Pet Show, and continue for seven event-filled days through Sunday.

Anita Haskell Jones and Dottie Higgins are co-chairmen of the Los Compadres sponsored celebration, and have captured the old-time spirit of the city's annual opening civic event.

WEARING OF Western attire will be enforced all week by cow-gal wranglers, who will offer offenders a street lynch or a fine, with all proceeds going to the Palm Springs Co-ordinating Youth Council.

The opening event, the Children's Western Pet Show, starts at 3:30 p. m., and will be held on the Thrifty Drug store parking lot. Prizes will be awarded to each child entering a pet dressed in Western attire. In addition, Saddle and Sirloin offers a bottle of champagne to the person wearing the best Western outfit.

TUESDAY NIGHT will feature a "night on the town," with everyone urged to visit their favorite night spots, again dressed in Western attire, with a free bottle of champagne being Whoopie! Again it's Western Week! And a place to hide I seek—I have no Western clothes. The fines would dissipate my means.

No great big hat, no chaps, no jeans. The boots, they hurt my toes. Having been an ardent booster for Western Week for these many years, that confession makes me feel like a bald-headed barber selling hair restorer. . . . But perhaps I can arm myself with my collection of worthless pari-mutuel tickets to show the pretty deputies that I DO get on a horse.

OF COURSE, this is written on Saturday morning. . . . Before today's tussle on the Coliseum turf between Stanford and USC . . . and the results this afternoon may spoil this. . . . But, as of Saturday morning Stanford was leading the Pacific Coast Conference. . . . And why not? . . . They are on the top floor because they have a Garrett. . . . And I am amazed that U. S. C. is

Youth Program of Palm Springs Highly Praised

"The Palm Springs youth program comes nearer to fitting the needs of Oslo, Norway, than any other studied in this country," Oslo Police Chief F. F. Koltenborn commented after attending the first general meeting of the Coordinating Youth Council, held Wednesday evening at Frances Stevens school.

Koltenborn requested that he be given a copy of the local program, which was recently formulated, and added that it was more effective potentially than programs now under way in

Stancliff Named as Development Ass'n President

New officers were elected and the enlarged board of directors ratified at the first meeting of the Palm Springs Development Corporation in its new office at 425 North Palm Canyon drive Friday afternoon.

Officers named are: E. L. Stancliff, president; Kenneth B. Kirk, vice president; William E. Malouf, vice president; Stanley V. Holt, secretary; Dan D. Dunlap, treasurer.

MEMBERS of the enlarged board of directors are: Rich B. Delier, Dr. John A. Costello, E. V. Fallgren, George D. Gannon, Donald P. Loker, John G. McClure, Stancliff, Kirk, Malouf, Holt and Dunlap.

Stancliff in reflecting the enthusiasm of the more than 30 original incorporators at the meeting, said, "Our company is looking forward with great hope for the successful development of our initial project here in the desert area, starting and completion of the thoroughbred racing plant as a necessary recreational adjunct, a community facility for this area."

KIRK AND MALOUF further declared that this project, along with other community endeavors and programs, will go to help Palm Springs and the entire Coachella Valley hold its place as America's foremost desert resort.

Reservation Tenants Ask U.S. Probe

Tenants of the Reservation, at a meeting held Friday night at the recreation hall of Taylor Trailer Park, asked for a congressional investigation of Indian affairs in southern California.

This action was taken, according to Temporary Chairman George Prosser, because there are currently so many things pending which are detrimental to the Indians and tenants of Indian-owned lands.

HE CITED the current plan of Congress to release all control over Indian lands, and the recent law suit which resulted in a court sale of Indian land November 20 to satisfy lawyers' fees.

Another meeting is planned for next Friday night, at the recreation hall, at which time officers of the group will be elected and a definite plan of action adopted. Henry Harris, assistant area director of Indian Affairs, Sacramento, will be invited to attend.

Two topics selected by the group for discussion are: "Are secure leases possible?" and "Are representatives you elect serving you or big interests who have thousands of dollars for lobbying?"

THE 75 PERSONS present Friday voted to have each individual write local, state and national representatives, expressing his views on current problems.

Tenants were asked to prepare case histories of what they consider "wrongs" they suffered, and submit them to Mrs. Annie Vlahous, 150 North Indian avenue, who was named temporary secretary.

It was emphasized at the meeting that this group is in no way connected with previous organizations.

LOSSES BED BOARD
Loss of an orthopedic bed board on North Indian avenue was reported to police Thursday by Jean Myerson of Desert Hot Springs.

TOP STARS TO JOIN IN DINNER FOR FARRELL

Top stars and officials of screen, radio and television, who have known Charles Farrell during his career as movie actor, businessman, and television and radio celebrity, are expected to join Palm Springs in honoring its former mayor Wednesday evening.

This was announced today by Bill Anderson and Fred Weigel, co-chairmen of the Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored testimonial dinner for Farrell, to be held at the Chi Chi, starting at 7:30 p. m.

ADVANCE TICKET sales have resulted in a virtual sell-out, with only a limited number left, the co-chairmen said. Anyone desiring tickets is asked to contact members of the Junior Chamber, the Chi Chi, or The Desert Sun.

Farrell, who now devotes his time to the operation of his Racquet Club and his "My Little Margie" series, is expected to be the recipient of numerous gifts. These will include a gavel given him by the Jaycees at the time he took office as mayor—only this time it will be a souvenir of his faithful and diligent service.

IT IS ALSO PLANNED to present a gift to former City Attorney Roy Colegate, who resigned last Winter after serving the city for 17 years.

Frank Bogert will be master of ceremonies of the elaborate program following the dinner, and it is expected that he will be assisted by several Hollywood personalities.

The PUBLISHER'S Corner

WHY DO PEOPLE change personality when they get behind the wheel of an automobile? This is a question that confounds traffic safety experts. All of the traffic safety devices and rules will not overcome this perplexing attitude. The motor car manners of the average driver is one of the worst characteristics of the American people.

Slow down to look for a street number and the horns start blowing behind you. Make one little slip in your driving and some ordinarily courteous person glares and grinds his teeth at you. Some people drive as though every other motorist on the road was their enemy. Others take almost the exact opposite position and drive as though they were the only person in town with an automobile. Holding out to see who'll dim their lights first is a great American game. Expecting the people back of you to wait while you back into a parking place takes Spartan courage. Passing a car and slowing down to its speed — or even less — is an old American custom.

Palm Springs is a wonderful place to practice more tolerance in the handling of an automobile. There's no sense in being in a hurry — it takes but a few minutes to get from one end of the town to the other. People are relaxing for the most part while here and the visitor should be the boss of the street. A little courtesy shown to the vacationist in Palm Springs — whether in a car, on a bicycle, on a horse or afoot — would impress them no end. They're so used to being pushed around at home that the new look in traffic would delight them. Take the fellow who is just creeping along while he looks at the attractive shops; or the woman who is just plain lost; a friendly, tolerant attitude toward these visitors instead of a horn blast and a growl would make them feel like we really appreciate their coming here — make them want to come back again.

Try this week improving your motor manners right here in Palm Springs. You will be surprised how good it will make you feel when you've shown some other driver a little courtesy and see what a pleasant smile you get. We all know that the greatest happiness comes from doing something for someone else. Try it the next time you get into your automobile!

Vandalism Repossessed Truck Seriously Damaged

Desert Bank reported to police Thursday that someone had caused extensive damage to a repossessed truck, parked in the lot at the rear of the bank.

The right window was broken, and all wiring under the dashboard and on the engine pulled out, according to Bank Cashier G. W. Richardson.

VISIT AUXILIARY
Mildred Oistad, treasurer, and Bea Prosser, hospital chairman, of the V.F.W. Auxiliary, Frontier Post, attended the monthly party at Patton for hospitalized veterans, taking magazines, pumpkin pies and candy. About 90 patients enjoyed the party.

THURSDAY MORNINGS I like to let the sun get up before I do... Because Wednesday is a long day and there is not much to do on Thursday so that's when I recuperate... So when the telephone rang loud and long Thursday morning I said to heck with it. But as it kept on ringing I got up and sleepily answered it. It was Mrs. Reich, calling from Missouri... She on her way back to P. S. with relatives, driving, and seems they broke down there... When she asked me why it took so long to answer I said I was sleeping... "At 8:15?" she said... "Yeah, it may be 8:15 there but it's only 6:15 here"... And told her that if she couldn't make it back here in time to write the Friday, the 13th, column she had better buy some air mail, special delivery stamps.

THE HELPING HAND was demonstrated again Thursday by the Welfare and Friendly Aid society, an agency of the Community Chest... A youth, 17, his bride, the same age, and a six-week-old baby were attempting to hitch hike to Los Angeles to keep an orthopedic appointment for the baby Friday... Police learned of their plight, contacted the W. F. A. and bus and food chits were purchased and the trio sent on their way with a cash token... And don't forget that Wednesday is the anniversary of the day we made the world safe for democracy... Huh.

New York City, Chicago and Sacramento.

THE OSLO POLICE CHIEF was the featured speaker at the Youth Council meeting, and briefly outlined the problems concerned with the young citizens of his country and community, showing that American community problems are no different than those found in other progressive countries.

"The world's main problem today is prevention, not apprehension of the criminal or delinquent," Koltenborn said. Praising Palm Springs for having such active adult interest and participation, he said that "young people of your community have excellent support."

MORE THAN 50 PARENTS, educators and citizens interested in the youth of the community attended the meeting. The organizational plan was explained, and officers and committee chairmen introduced.

Officers are: Mrs. Sidney O. Niles, president; Dr. Hugh Stephens, vice president; Mrs. Eugene Theriault, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jack Freeman, recording secretary; ad Charles McDonald, treasurer.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN are: Jerry Bunker, legal; Fred Morrison, activities coordinator; Wayland Reynolds, school public relations; Paul Summit, guidance; George Ripley, business policy; Bill Brubaker, recreation; R. W. Peterson, city administration; Police Chief John S. Davis, law enforcement; Dr. Charles Baldwin, survey, and Conover King, publicity.

Reports were given by each committee chairman. Bunker assured the Council that the city administration would offer its complete support to the plans and efforts of the group.

SUMMIT OUTLINED the action taken to obtain the services of the Rosenberg Foundation, dealing with "Encouragement and help of child welfare in California." He also submitted a progress report of the "work experience" program sponsored by the council, whereby employers may obtain help by calling Summit or the Palm Springs Employers Association. Screening, testing and measuring of youth work abilities is nearing completion under the combined efforts of the schools and association, Summit said.

CHIEF DAVIS reported on the progress of the Junior Police Reserve, with the first oral examinations having been scheduled for Saturday. Anyone missing that test may take it in the near future.

Appointed to the board to conduct the oral exam were: Bill Brubaker, Dr. Charles Baldwin, Jim Morton, J. Blake Field, Mrs. Frances Crocker and Conover King, with Mrs. Alma Gilbert as alternate.

Activity on the "Drag Strip Association" is also progressing, Chief Davis said, with the organization meeting scheduled for 7:30 p. m., Saturday, at the Youth Center. "The support, enthusiasm and interest shown by our young Villagers will soon provide for the desired establishment with city limits, under competent supervision," he added.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED at the meeting that all presently functioning groups and their leaders, Boys' Club, Little League, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and

County Charter Proposal May be Decided Next June

President Oscar Crowell of the County Association of Chambers of Commerce said Thursday he welcomes the stand taken Tuesday by directors of the County Farm Bureau on proposals for a county charter.

He said the resolution adopted Tuesday by the directors leaves the door open for an election in June—which is what the Association of Chambers of Commerce has advocated.

He said, too, that it shows the Farm Bureau's eagerness to give a close study to charter proposals.

CROWELL SAID he believes the Association of Chambers of Commerce will go along with the Farm Bureau's request at a hearing today that county supervisors postpone a decision until April of 1954 on the question of whether to call an election of freeholders who would draw a county charter.

He pointed out that a postponement until April still gives the supervisors time to call an election to be held in June.

Before Tuesday it had appeared that the Association of Chambers of Commerce and the farm group were headed for conflict on the question of action on the charter proposal. Farm centers were saying they wanted no election until near the end of 1954.

CROWELL SAID he is "delighted to see that the farm groups may be willing to have an election as early as June."

He said he believes the Association of Chambers of Commerce will accept the Farm Bureau's invitation to a joint study of charter proposals "enthusiastically."

He said he is optimistic that the studies will convince the farm groups of the wisdom of calling a charter election.

County Republicans to Rally at Dinner Event Wednesday

All interested voters are invited to attend the $50 a plate, fund-raising dinner sponsored by the United Republican Finance Committee of Riverside County, scheduled at 7 p. m., Wednesday, Armistice Day, at the Mission Inn in Riverside. William Clay, general chairman of the event designed to raise funds for congressional and senatorial campaigns in 1954, today stressed that although more than 1,200 invitations had been mailed to former Republican contributors, all Republican friends will be welcomed. Tickets may be obtained at the Republican Headquarters, 3927 Main street in Riverside.

California's Governor, Goodwin J. Knight, will be honored guest with United States Senator Barry M. Goldwater as principal speaker. George Murphy, motion picture actor and recently appointed chairman of the Republican state central committee, will be master of ceremonies. Also attending will be A. Ronald Butten, of Rancho Mirage, Republican national committeeman for California.

Assisting Clay in local arrangements will be C. Thomas Wheeler, chairman of the Riverside county central committee, and Glenn Gurtner as special gifts chairman. Mrs. Howard Younglove is serving as chairman of the women's division who will arrange for the seating, hostess tables, and decoration for the dinner. A reception will be held from 6 to 7 o'clock prior to the dinner. Similar dinners have been successfully sponsored by the GOP in San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Fresno, Santa Ana, Long Beach, Santa Barbara, Salinas, and San Jose. Others are scheduled this Fall at Santa Rosa, Redding, Merced, Sacramento, Oakland and San Bernardino.

the brilliance of the opening, a major social event of the Fall season.

A special dinner menu is being planned by Chef Steve Yankovich, who is noted for his superb cuisine, and the price per person, the surprise of the season, is announced on another page.

Many cocktail parties are already in the planning stage to precede the dinner, some in the Kiva Room, some in the South Pacific Room (which will be in full bloom that night), and numbers of them in private homes or exclusive clubs.

Dress will be formal or informal as desired, but many beautiful gowns and furs will dot the assembly.

LIGHTS AND MUSIC, limousines rolling up to the entrance, flowers and furs and jewels, and important personages will make this night when El Mirador formally opens for its second Winter season, a colorful scene.

The Desert Club AT LA QUINTA Opens Thursday Nov. 12th

CHARLES SOFFER, Managing Director

There is magic in La Quinta . . . desert magic. You'll find a new adventure from the first clean wine-like breath of air in the morning, to the last sage laden breath before you turn in at night . . . and the nights are something special . . . the air is so soft and gentle, and there is a blaze of stars so bright and close, you can almost reach up and rake them down with your hands . . . over the lights glinting across the pool, you may hear the soft distant strains of music inviting you to dance . . . Truly, you'll wonder why you've wasted all those other weeks and weekends with empty, routine vacations anywhere else.

The main building, dining room and cocktail lounges will be open to the public for a limited time only. 20 Minutes from Palm Springs on Highway 111

The DESERT CLUB offers so much being the newest and most complete resort in the desert area.

Green, Tee at Thunderbird

BY JIMMY HINES
Things are popping at Thunderbird Ranch and Country club. Phil Harris is down regularly and getting in some excellent golf sticking to his five handicap. Only times not on course are when he has to go to Hollywood for his radio and TV shows.

Ralph and Nancy Kiner and baby, Michael, are also much in evidence. He is just back from a successful year with the Chicago Cubs. The Kiners are planning a grass tennis court next to their home so they can get in some real practice. To my knowledge, this will be the first grass court on the desert.

Ross Clark and his bride, June, are also here and playing every day. June is very happy about breaking 100 for the first time. If she keeps on playing 36 holes a day, it will not be long before she breaks 90. Our own Ruth Manseau not only keeps up her golfing schedule, but is very busy getting set for the Third Ladies' Annual Invitational November 16, 17 and 18. She has a curtain raiser with a mixed foursome on Sunday the 15th, in which she has already 56 four-somes signed. Some very fine prizes are being offered. Ruth now has 175 ladies signed for the Invitational starting the 16th.

Regularly seen on the greens, Izzy Prom, Maggie Hicks, Ruth Manseau, Barbara Hinkle, June Clark and Phyllis Froggatt.

Some of the homes open for the winter include those of Phil Harris, Paul Prom, George Wright, George Cameron, Ross Clark, John Dawson, Harry Dart, Paris Litzinger, George Delany, Fred Harlow, Frank Belcher, Howard Irving, and many others. New homes are going up for Mrs. Peggy Lester, Joseph Froggatt, Glen Dettweiler and the Ralph Singers.

Bing Crosby was down last week to check on his new home and start considerable planting. He got into a game with Dean Martin while here.

Bob Hope was down for the week and after a few days in the sunshine, was getting some color back in his face.

Mr. and Mrs. Desi Arnaz were here with their two children. Considering that Desi just started playing golf last spring, his game is improving rapidly.

Had a fine talk with Ben Hogan (who is looking very fit). Ben is back at Tamarisk and they are busy with their plans for the pro-amateur tournament to be held November 14, 15 and 16.

Scheduled events at Thunderbird Country Club are:

Third Annual Women's Golf Tournament, November 15, 16, 17, 18.

Third Annual Member-Guest Golf Tournament, December 5 and 6.

Annual Four Ball Invitational Tournament, March 3 to 7.

Annual Invitational Golf Tournament, April 5 to 12.

One of the new improvements at the Club is the Thunderbird buggy stable to house the golf carts, 4,500 square feet of floor space and a complete maintenance shop.

The course is in fine shape, and with all the new improvements, we are looking forward to a great season.

Missing Trucker Returns Home

Delbert Eccles, 33, whose disappearance on the desert east of Palm Springs created much stir and started a large posse on the search, reappeared Thursday at his Highland Park home with a vague story of being slugged and robbed and placed in a box car. He said that when he was able to leave the car, he was in Amarillo, Texas.

More than 200 persons were engaged in the search for him last week after his abandoned truck was found near Salton Sea.

He reached his home Thursday after a two-day bus trip from Texas.

Square Dances

Square dances sponsored by the City Recreation department will start tonight, Monday, at the Polo Grounds pavilion, with Walt Baumann as the caller. All villagers and visitors are invited.

Indians Move Into 3-Way Tie for First Place In RCL

Palm Springs moved into a three-way tie for first place in the Riverside County League Friday night, winning 26 to 0 over Beaumont while Elsinore upset previously unbeaten Hemet.

All three of these teams now have won four games and lost one. The Indians meet Elsinore in the final game of the season, here, November 20, with their next game being at San Jacinto next Friday, November 13.

COACH CLARE BALLAGH's team controlled the play Friday night on the Cougar's home field. After a scoreless first period, Alvin Harrison tossed a 10-yard aerial to John Laster who then raced 45 yards for the initial Indian touchdown. Laster also added the extra point.

Veteran's Tennis Play Scheduled

Annual Veteran's Tournament of the Racquet Club will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 13-15, with approximately 70 tennis players from throughout Southern California expected to participate.

This is an unsanctioned tournament, and the Racquet Club establishes the rules.

Play is limited to men's singles and men's doubles.

State's Traffic Toll Down But Care is Needed

As California highway users head into the final months of 1953 they face the job of protecting record low mileage death toll for highway travel.

The rate, currently 6.4, represents traffic fatalities per one hundred million miles of travel, and is the lowest since statistics have been kept on accidents. This announcement was released from Headquarters of the California Highway Patrol Monday.

FATALITIES throughout the state numbered 2439 from January through September this year. The total was 2563 for the same interval last year.

"We are headed in the right direction, but there's plenty of hard work to be done," said Highway Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell in commenting on this downward trend.

"There was a bad driving weather during November and December, there will be more hours of darkness, and there will be far too many automobiles driven in spite of faulty equipment.

"WE CAN REDUCE last year's accident totals but it will take the best efforts of each of us. Keep your car in safe condition and keep yourself fit to drive; then drive safely," he urged.

Fatalities in unincorporated areas of the state number 1730,

Next score came in the third quarter, when Harrison passed to Laster for a 35-yard gain, and then on the next play carried the ball himself around left end for 40 yards and six points. Fullback Chuck Martin ran the extra point.

THE FINAL TWO touchdowns came in the fourth period, with Quarterback Bill Brubaker plunging over from the four, and Laster intercepting a Cougar pass and running 45 yards to pay-dirt territory. Laster missed both conversions.

In other League action, Banning held the favored Coachella team to a scoreless tie, and Perris routed San Jacinto 25 to 7.

Next Friday's games will have Palm Springs at San Jacinto, Hemet at Coachella, and Perris at Elsinore.

Village Quintets Play 29 Palms

Mhoon and Mhoon and Lucas All Stars will travel to Twenty-nine Palms Tuesday night to meet the 29 Palms Marines and 29 Palms city team, in exhibition tilts.

The first game will start at 8 p. m., with the second following at 9:30.

Americanization Course at Adult School Popular

Two evening classes in the adult evening high school of particular interest to prospective citizens and to those whose native tongue is other than English are "Americanization" and "English for Foreign Speaking," according to Chester Sproule, principal.

Although the "Americanization" class is designed particularly for those wishing to take American citizenship, some of the class members are going for a brush up on their American history.

Anyone wishing to review the United States Constitution and history is welcome to attend, said Sproule.

The class in English for foreign speaking is primarily for those persons who speak little English but is also proving helpful to those who need help in basic English grammar, spelling and pronunciation.

The Americanization class meets on Wednesday evening from 7:30 until 10 and the English class on Monday and Tuesday evening from 7:30 until 9:30.

There is no tuition or registration fees for these classes and they both meet at the high school on Ramon road.

79 fewer than for the first nine months of 1952. Reportable accidents and injuries on rural roadways show similar reductions when compared to similar periods last year.

Jayvee Gridders Downed 39 to 0 at Banning High

Completely reversing their form of last week when they held the powerful Beaumont Cougars to a scoreless tie and completely dominated play, the Palm Springs Jayvees were routed by Banning 39 to 0 on the Bronchos home field Thursday night.

There was no resemblance between the play on the two successive weeks. Coaches Bill Manger and Dick White said, Tackling and blocking which had been excellent against Beaumont simply didn't exist against Banning.

TEAM WORK collapsed completely, the coaches reported, although boys kept trying as individuals. They singled out O. B. Crawford, Angel Estrada and Jim Eagan as the most effective Palm Springs players of the evening.

Coaches White and Manger praised Banning as having an alert, fast and well-coached team. The Bronchos made 70 yards on a "sucker" play the first time they had the ball, and went on from there.

ALL 25 PALM SPRINGS players saw action in the last game of the season. Starters were: O. B. Crawford and Stephen Mediano, ends; Biff Andreas and Jim Crawford, tackles; Jim Otto and Dale Johnson, guards; Ronnie Hays, center; Dennis Rowe, quarterback; Angel Estrada, left half; Gene Segundo, right half, and Max Dunham, fullback.

Palm Springs never threatened during the game. Longest gain at any one time was just before halftime when Jim Thompson ran from his own 20 to midfield.

Ten Pin Alley

Palm Springs
Bowling Academy

Talk about good fun and sportsmanship — our lady bowlers have it. When that first ball leaves an ugly split, instead of tearing their hair, kicking the ball return or stomping back to the bench to take "nine," they try for it.

Occasionally it is made, and there is always that possibility that "maybe I can." So up steps Theda Hathaway of Marty's Sample Shop and makes the 9-7 split. This has been reported to have been done by only four other West Coast bowlers this month.

El Paseo is knocking on Pedersen's door by taking three games. Watch out, you'll lose first place. The Bowling Academy stepped ahead with high scores of 2316 and 815. Caye Walden of El Paseo won high honors with 526 and 187.

Our leaders knock those pins around as if a charge of TNT had been set off in their midst. Desert Inn Coffee Shop still is in first place. Palm Springs Bowl wins high scores of 2417-868. Hugh Erwin of Elks No. 1 takes high game with 212, and H. Hoffman of Western Tobacco had high series with 512. Jim Fry of Elks No. 1 made a stepladder series of 125-124-123.

Desert Commercial League reorganized, so DeWane's Shoe Salon won the first four games, and high scores of 2434-862. A. Schmidt won individual high scores of 529-209. There is a lot of harmony in this league.

The Victory Leaguers are our democratic bowlers. Paddock Pools stepped ahead to that coveted first place by taking four games from Elks No. 2. They carried high scores of 2398-794. Don Lewis of The Hut convinced everyone that he could let go of the ball by taking high scores of 549-190.

The popular Mixed Twosome is improving all the time. Two new sponsors, Ideal Barber shop and Ray Lusby Insurance, with Greenfield Realty, put new spirit into team bowling. A sponsor is the lifeblood of any team. It was too late to get the report for Wednesday night's games. Sorry, maybe it'll be on time next week.

GOP Assembly Delays Meeting

Regular meeting of the Palm Springs Republican Assembly on the second Monday of the month will not be held due to Western Week, but will be held the following Monday, November 16. President Warren Slaughter announces. A guest speaker is expected at the meeting.

Turkey Shoot is Planned Nov. 22

Palm Springs Elks Lodge will sponsor a Turkey Shoot on Sunday, November 22, from 8 a. m. until dark, at the old rifle range near Araby Point. Sgt. Howard Poe of the Palm Springs Police department is in charge. Shooting will include high power and small bore rifle, skeet and pistol. Groups of 10 and 20 will compete at one time, with the winner receiving a 10 or 20 pound turkey depending on the number shooting. Proceeds from the event will go to the Elks Lodge building fund.

Even informal home parties turn in some fabulous items . . . like the Halloween party . . . where the guests dunked for jeweled apples in a bowl of champagne . . . Add other exotic notes . . . the French poodle that wears a jeweled necklace . . . and those elaborate be-gemmed fly swatters featured in smart shops . . .

We don't gild the lily in Palm Springs . . . we sprinkle glitter-dust on the desert sunshine . . . fasten orchids on branches of smoke tree . . . fill swimming pools with gardenias . . . and this week you'll see ermine combined with denim for an adaptation of cowboy chaps . . . Fun, isn't it?

Playhouse Premiere

Thanksgiving is practically at hand . . . Christmas is just around the corner . . . and the opening night of the Palm Springs Playhouse Theatre will be one of the first big, formal events of the 1954 season . . . This was underscored this week . . . when the announcement was made that . . . Mrs. William Malouf, Palm Springs and Los Angeles socialite, has accepted the chairmanship for opening night . . . Plans are still in the formative stage . . . but will probably include an after-theatre supper dance . . . The list of patrons and patronesses is an impressive one . . . and the night of the Playhouse premiere should be a glittering social affair . . .

Ticket sales for the season start almost immediately . . . following a luncheon being given at the Tennis Club Thursday noon for ticket chairmen from various civic organizations . . . Luncheon hostesses will be Mrs. John F. Luccarelli and Mrs. Austin McManus . . .

Gone Again

Ray Ryan was only here for a few days . . . long enough to make the Pine-to-Palms ride . . . and was called back to New York on business . . . He will be back again and I understand his family will be joining him here this winter . . .

I was so right last Thursday . . . when I said that "names make news" . . . and so wrong in crediting the King and Queen of Greece story to the A. Belden Crists . . . It should have said the A. B. Crists Sr. of Las Palmas Estates . . . A. Belden (Mr. Crist's son) has just recently received his builder's license . . . The date when King Paul and Queen Frederika will visit the Martin von Dehns at their Thunderbird estate is still uncertain . . . but it was discussed when the von Dehns entertained the visiting royalty at an afternoon tea in their Waldorf Tower apartment . . . and their Highnesses are reported enthusiastically about a visit here . . .

Top Performers

Two Villagers are included in the "Top Performers of 1953" in the November issue of Fortnight magazine . . . Designer Raymond Loewy (for his design of the 1953 Studebaker) . . . and Elsinore (Mrs. George) Machris, who gave a million dollars to the City of Hope . . . They are two of 54 Californians (headed by Earl Warren, Richard Nixon, and William Knowland who are featured in seven pages of pictures . . .

Entering whole-heartedly into the spirit of Western Week . . . Lynn Emrick (capable assistant at Desert Museum) has fitted out their road runner in Western duds . . . From a Stetson on his crest to a frontier model Colt, strapped down for a fast draw on his spindly shank . . . he's an all-western bird . . .

Things I was sorry to miss . . . the corner-stone laying at Lily Pons' palatial new house . . . and I hope I get to see it later . . . I understand it is to be featured in a layout in "House Beautiful" magazine this Spring . . . The informal opening of the beautiful new glass and native stone diningroom at Deep Well . . . and the chance to enjoy some of Santos' superb food . . . Formal opening date is coming up later . . . Bess Bender's style show at Oasis . . . which I hear was one of the nicest events staged for the wives of the visiting hotel men . . .

Entertain Wives

Mrs. George Roberson and Mrs. Earl Coffman were hostesses to the wives of past presidents and directors of the hotelmen's association . . . The two hostesses entertained the group at the Roberson home at 385 Tahquitz drive, for cocktails . . . and took them on to the Desert

Creative Writing Course Offered at Evening School

A survey of the contents of today's magazines, of what editors are buying, reveals the ever growing market for the feature and the fictionalized article, the article written in the form of the short story.

That article and feature writing is no longer the factual and unimaginative product, as contrasted with the short-story or drama, is being fully demonstrated in the class in creative writing being conducted under adult education, at Palm Springs high school, Monday evenings, by Florence Hawkins, artist, writer, and lecturer.

"The modern article is not a piece of self-expression, nor a nostalgic bit of charm," said Mrs. Hawkins. "Article and feature writing for which editors are eagerly looking today, have first of all the value of experience and of general interest. Entertaining, imparting information, and rapidly moving, it has color and imaginative application which only the creative writer can impart to it. That elixir," adds Mrs. Hawkins, "that picks up and entices the reader's interest making it become vividly alive, and drawing him into the experience as a direct participant."

Mrs. Hawkins has written for New York and San Francisco journals featuring profiles of celebrities of this country and of Europe and has won competitive awards in poetry and short-story.

A course in public speaking is being given by Mrs. Hawkins, under adult education, Tuesday evenings, from 7 to 10 o'clock.

New Hearing Aid Available

After exhaustive laboratory research and rugged field testing by hard-of-hearing engineers, physicians, and other hearing aid users to determine the dependability of this sensational economic development, Zenith Radio Corporation has introduced a new, completely tubeless hearing aid to a convention of Zenith dealers. The presentation was made by W. N. Brown, head of the hearing aid division.

Merrill Crockett of the Village Pharmacy said that the new instrument, called the Royal-T, is now being shipped to dealers and is available at his store.

Woman Wants $36,500 Result Mishap at Hotel

Suit asking $36,500 damages as result of a fall in a local hotel was on file in superior court at Riverside with Horace Heidt, noted orchestra leader, as defendant. Mrs. A. J. Casey of Bakersfield is the plaintiff and asks the money as a result of a fall at the hotel.

Mrs. Casey, owner and operator of a cosmetology school at Bakersfield, said the fall took place on the night of Nov. 11, 1952, while she was walking from the swimming pool to her room at the Lone Palm Hotel.

She charged that the walk at Heidt's hotel was "negligently constructed" as to cause a fall. She said also the area was not properly illuminated.

Mrs. Casey, represented by the Riverside law firm of Shaw and Kegley, said she "suffered a fractured ankle, and severe and great shock to her nervous system" as a result of the fall.

More Missionary Spirit Needed for Boy's Clubs

"We need more missionary spirit in Boy's clubs," David W. Armstrong, national director, Boys' Club of America, told executives of member Boys' clubs of nine Western states at their regional meeting at the Tennis club, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Armstrong was the featured speaker at the three-day discussion conference, using as his subject, "Interpreting the Boys' Club."

"WE NEED the help of laymen and executives in interesting groups in other communities," the national director continued. "Every additional Boys' Club that is established strengthens the movement and every unit in it. There is nothing that intensifies the interest of an individual more than to be a missionary of the Boys' Club in and out of his own community."

Boys' Club of America is a national organization, with more than one-half million members in the age groups of seven through 18. The purpose of the club is to provide constructive leisure-time activities for all boys regardless of race, color or creed. They are not recreational centers, but clubs to provide for the development of the boys through sports, crafts, hobbies, games and other activities.

ARMSTRONG, in his address, listed seven points making the Boys' Club distinctive from other groups.

These include: Traditional special concern with boys from low income families, low cost of membership, open as a club to boys at all times, providing a club exclusively for boys, offering a varied program which will interest all boys, and providing guidance relationship between leaders and boys by group activity and individual service.

"THE FUTURE of the Boys' club movement and the development of the individual Boys' club depends upon a vigorous publicity and interpretation of these principles of organization and work to the public," Armstrong told the Western executives.

"We are all in the boat together and together we are a large and strong enough group to make an impression on the whole country," Armstrong continued. "The club that has no program of interpretation is a weak link in the chain which binds us together."

"EVERY BOYS' CLUB needs the strength of the other because understanding in one community overflows into other communities in countless ways."

Armstrong has been national director of the Boys' Clubs of America since 1941. He has been associated with Boys' Club work for almost 50 years, starting as a physical instructor at the Pittsfield, Massachusetts, club. Aaron Fahringer, director, Western region, with headquarters in Los Angeles, presided at the meetings and was moderator of discussion.
